- You control your availability: If your studio is closed for any day of the event, it won't appear on the map, ensuring no unplanned visitors.
- This year's event will receive increased PR support along with additional signage, including yard signs, posters, and large posters with directional arrows to guide attendees to your studio.

Last year's event was a resounding success, organized in under 60 days with just 30 days of publicity. This year, we're starting publicity 90 days ahead to make it even bigger and better, aiming for up to 30 participating studios. Together, we're building a lasting arts tradition in Fremont.

How to Join:

Sign up today at fremontopenstudios.com. The $35 fee can be paid via PayPal. For maximum exposure, sign up early, though registration will remain open up to the event dates.

Let's come together to celebrate art, build connections, and have a great time sharing creativity with our community.
